OHIO PERSONAL INJURY LAW FIRM REACTS TO INCREASED CRASH STATISTICS BY OPENING NEW OFFICE IN MAJOR MARKET

Kisling, Nestico & Redick Opens New Toledo Office in Hopes of Helping to Protect the Rights of Innocent Accident Victims in Lucas County

Toledo, OH, May 4, 2015— According to year-to-date statistics released by the Ohio State Highway Patrol, traffic fatalities are on the rise from this same time last year. To help combat the rise of innocent victims potentially being taken advantage of by big insurance companies, Kisling, Nestico & Redick (KNR) is opening a fully-staffed office dedicated to the needs of Northwest Ohio.

The fact that there are more traffic fatalities this year than last, many of them coming from the Toledo area, means there are more people in need of someone to help them understand their rights when they're the victim of an auto accident," says Managing Partner Rob Nestico. We've always been available for residents in the area, but we felt it was time to create a permanent staff solely dedicated to the Toledo community."

The brand new 4,000 square foot office located at 4853 Monroe Street will open today, Monday, May 4th, and be home to Litigation Attorney Christopher Corrigan, Pre-Litigation Attorney Anthony Hall, and several support staff.

Kisling, Nestico & Redick is a personal injury law firm with locations all throughout Ohio. KNR has gained a reputation as being one of the state's leading firms due to their personal service, inside knowledge of the insurance industry, and extensive legal experience.
