The first show features 12-time Grammy nominee, Dierks Bentley, as the headliner along with Randy Houser and Cam and Tucker Beathard as supporting acts. The series will continue Saturday night with the Dave Matthews Band and Kenny Chesney next Thursday, followed by 24 additional concerts through September.

“We are extremely excited to present the KNR Concert Series this summer,” says Managing Partner, Rob Nestico. “The concerts at Blossom bring in people from all over Ohio, some who travel great distances to be there.
